

THREE COMMON MISTAKES

1. ADDING INFORMATION

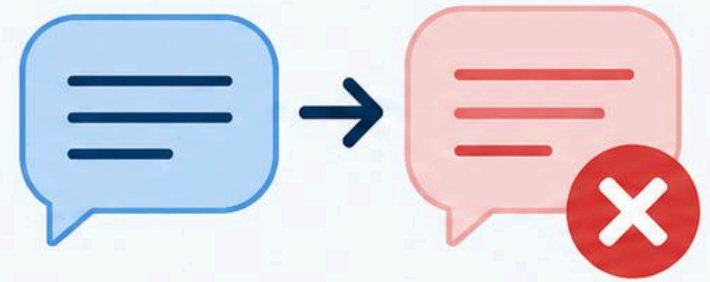

Do not add explanations or details the speaker did not say.

2. LEAVING THINGS OUT

Do not skip information just because it seems unimportant.

3. CHANGING THE MEANING

Keep the speaker's original meaning, tone, and intent.

QUICK TIP

LISTEN FIRST

Hear the complete message before interpreting.

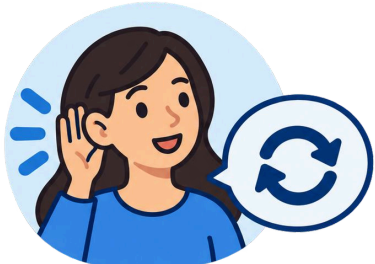

QUICK TIP

STAY CALM

Stay focused even when the conversation becomes difficult.

QUICK TIP

ASK FOR REPETITION

Ask the speaker to repeat something when you are unsure.

QUICK TIP

BE CLEAR

Use simple and clear language.

QUICK TIP

TAKE SHORT NOTES

Write only the important information.

ACCURACY OVER SPEED

Interpreting quickly does not matter if the message is wrong. Focus on delivering the complete and accurate meaning first.

Remember: Do not add. Do not subtract. Do not change the meaning.
